SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from and after the first day of June, 1922.

Approved April 13th, 1922.

CHAPTER 465.

AN ACT to provide for the execution of all criminals sentenced to death by the judgment of any Court of this State, at the Maryland Penitentiary, and defining the duty of the Governor, the Court, the Sheriff and other officials with reference thereto, and providing for the payment of necessary expense incident to the establishment of a suitable place at the Maryland Penitentiary for the carrying out of the provisions of this Act.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That if an offender, on conviction, may be sentenced to suffer death, the Court before whom such offender shall be tried and convicted, shall sentence him to suffer death by hanging by the neck; and when a case has been removed for trial and the party shall be sentenced to be hung, the Court shall remand him to the place where the indictment was found, where such offender shall remain in the custody of the Sheriff of that county or city for disposition as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That punishment of death must be inflicted within the walls of the building hereinafter provided; and shall not be executed earlier than thirty days after the sentence is pronounced.
