

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the treasurer to keep a fair and regular account of all the property and funds received and all disbursements made by the trustees, to open an account in bank where all money shall be deposited in the name of the corporation which shall be subject to his check countersigned by the president.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the secretary to keep a full and fair record of all the proceedings of the Board of Trustees in a book provided for that purpose subject at all times to the inspection of the several members of the church, and the trustees shall cause the same together with the treasurer's account to be laid before the annual meeting for the election of officers.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Minister in charge shall have power to call a members meeting at any time when in his judgment the interest of the church demands it or any seven members in good standing may at any time call such a meeting.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That whenever the said Hampden Methodist Protestant Church by death, removals or any other cause shall cease to be an organized religious or worshipping body or society or shall cease to be connected with the said denomination of Christians known as the Methodist Protestant Church then all the real and leasehold property and estate of this corporation at such time shall belong to the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church to be disposed of by the said annual conference. The president of said conference in such to have authority to sell and convey the same should the conference so direct.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That all the lands and tenements and other property of said church shall be vested in this corporate body and their successors forever, and when authorized by a vote of two-thirds of the members present of said church over the age of twenty-one years, said vote being cast at a meeting or meetings regularly called for the purpose, they shall have power to bargain and sell, purchase and acquire, lease, mortgage or convey or otherwise dispose of property in such manner as they may judge most conducive to the interest of said church but without such authority the trustees shall neither purchase, lease, nor sell, nor otherwise acquire or dispose of property nor erect any building for the use of said church.