

tricts in the center of West River, and continuing on the said line in a southwesterly and westerly direction to the intersection with the present public road from Owensville to Sudley; thence leaving the said division line between the First and Eighth Election Districts and following the center of the public road in a southerly direction to Sudley; thence continuing on the center of the public road from Sudley in a southerly direction toward Nutwell to a point where this road crosses a stream known as Tracy's Branch; thence leaving the public road and following the center of the said Tracy's Branch in an easterly and southerly direction to Herring Bay, and thence by Herring Bay, and Chesapeake Bay to the place of beginning. (For the purpose of taxation the said public road from Sudley to a point where this road crosses a stream known as Tracy's Branch, shall be considered in the new district hereby created, to be known as the Seventh Election District).

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the polling place of said new district to be known and designated as the Seventh Election District shall be at some place to be selected by the Supervisors of Election of said County, and for the purpose of providing for the registration of voters in said district, and the holding of elections therein the said Supervisors of Election shall make the necessary appointments of officials, and provide the necessary books, ballot boxes, and other things as are required for the registration of voters and the holding of elections in other districts. All persons living in said district who are entitled to register shall register in said district.

SEC. 3½. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of jury service as provided for under Section 251, page 110 of Melvin's Local Code for Anne Arundel County, the judges or judge of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, shall treat the Seventh Election District as being part of the Eighth Election District, and as if no division had been made of the latter district.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.
