

as said section was enacted by Chapter 477 of the Acts of 1902, authorizing an increase in the tax rate of said town.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 111C of Article 12 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Garrett County," sub-title "Friendsville", as said section was enacted by Chapter 477 of the Acts of 1902, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1922.

Approved March 21st, 1922.
