

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That in the event said bonds are issued the Mayor and Town Council of Lonaconing shall levy out of the general funds of said town the sum of one thousand dollars, and such further amount as may be necessary to pay the interest upon the bonds hereby authorized, then outstanding from year to year during each year that any of the said bonds remain outstanding, and shall collect said money so levied and pay for and redeem one thousand dollars of said bonds each year, beginning with the year 1924, together with the interest upon the remaining outstanding bonds. Said sum of one thousand dollars and the amount necessary for interest as aforesaid, so levied, shall be included in the general levy of the said Mayor and Town Council of Lonaconing, and shall be exclusive of and in addition to the amounts which said Mayor and Town Council of Lonaconing are now authorized to levy.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the money levied and collected as provided for in the preceding section of this Act shall be paid to the Mayor and to two other persons to be selected by the Council of the town of Lonaconing as Trustees of the Sinking Fund for the General Improvement Bonds, and said trustees shall use said money for the sole purpose of redeeming one thousand dollars a year of this bond issue as hereinbefore provided and the payment of the interest due each year on the bonds of this issue still outstanding.

SEC. 4A. And be it further enacted, That before this Act shall become operative, the Mayor and Town Council of Lonaconing shall submit the question of issuing the aforesaid bonds to the qualified voters of said town, at either the next succeeding general municipal election, or at a special election to be held in said town and time to be designated by the said Mayor and Town Council, and of which due notice shall be given by the Mayor and Town Council by advertisement in both daily newspapers published in Allegany County, and by handbills distributed throughout said town. Said advertisement of said election shall be given at least twenty days before the date set for said election; at said election the ballots cast by the voters shall have printed thereon "For Improvement Bonds" and "Against Improvement Bonds," with a square after the words in each case for the capital "X" mark of the voter; and if the majority of the votes cast on said question shall be for said improvement bonds, then the Mayor and Town Council of Lonaconing may proceed to execute the powers vested in it by the
