

envelope, to the Chairman of the said Commissioners, and within ten days thereafter said Commissioners shall meet and canvass said return and declare those qualified persons receiving the highest number of votes duly elected.

In the event that this Charter is adopted by the citizens of Berwyn under the provisions of the referendum contained herein an election in the manner and form prescribed above shall be held for six commissioners, two from each of the districts, on the third Monday in June, 1922. For the purpose of conducting such election Frank Dyer, Edward B. Beckwith and William Dwyer are hereby designated as judges and John B. Gaylor and Ervin R. Beardsley are hereby named as clerks, and for the purposes of such election and the referendum hereinafter provided for, the above named judges shall have the authority conferred upon the Commissioners.

Immediately after such election the said judges shall canvass the votes and declare the two persons from each district receiving the highest number of votes duly elected Commissioners, and the persons so elected shall serve until the third Monday in May, 1923.

On the first Monday in May, 1923, there shall be elected two Commissioners from each district, one to serve for a period of two years and one to serve for a period of one year, the person receiving the highest number of votes to serve for two years, and the person receiving the next highest number of votes to serve for one year, and in the event of a tie the term of the persons elected shall be determined by lot or drawing, to be regulated by the Commissioners.

In the event of a tie in the election of any persons to office under this Charter the person elected shall be determined by lot or drawing to be regulated by the Commissioners.

SEC. 7. The Commissioners elected shall hold office for a period of two years from the third Monday in May, except as hereinabove provided for, and any vacancy by death, resignation, removal or otherwise from the Town of Berwyn, shall be filled by a special election to be held after ten days notice, the person or persons so elected to hold office for the unexpired term. The Commissioners shall serve without compensation.

SEC. 8. The Commissioners shall at their first meeting after every general election elect one of their number to be Chairman of the Board of Commissioners.
