bonds as may be mentioned or designated in said advertisement, and shall award them to the highest resposible bidder or bidders therefor for cash; provided that the same shall not be sold for less than their par value and accrued interest; if two or more bidders have made the same bid, and such bid is the highest, and the bonds so bid for by the highest responsible bidders are in excess of the whole amount of the bonds so offered for sale, such bonds shall be awarded to such highest responsible bidders bidding the same price in a ratable proportion; and if any of said bonds so offered for sale are not bid for, or if any insufficient price be bid for them, they may be subsequently disposed of under the direction of the said County Commissioners or a majority of them, at a private sale upon the best terms they can obtain for the same; provided they shall not be sold at private sale for less than par and accrued interest.

And in no event shall there be paid to any person, firm or corporation any discount, commission or compensation of any kind whatever for the sale of said bonds or any of them, or for any service in connection therewith.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the sum of three hundred dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said bonds for the payment of the expense of engraving, printing and other outlays connected with the issue of the loan hereby authorized, and for the payment of the advertising directed by this Act and all other incidental expenses connected with the execution of its provisions in connection with said loan.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of redeeming said bonds when and as they fall due, as set out in Section 2 of this Act, and for securing the prompt payment of the interest thereon, the said County Commissioners shall for the year 1923 and annually thereafter, until the last series of said bonds mature, levy a tax on the assessable property of said county sufficient to pay the annual interest on such of said bonds as may be outstanding and in addition thereto the sum of sixteen thousand dollars each year, to pay the principal of said debt, and shall for the year 1922 levy a tax on the assessable property of said county sufficient to pay the annual interest on all of said bonds as may be outstanding; and the county treasurer shall reserve out of the money collected by him for county purposes generally a sum sufficient to pay interest on said bonds when due and to pay the principal amount
