

ises or at a plant, or in the course of his employment away from the plant of his employer, and shall not include farm laborers. "Farm Laborers," as used in this Act, shall mean any employees who, at the time of the accident, are engaged in rendering any agricultural service, including the threshing or harvesting of crops, or who, at the time of the accident, are engaged in service incidental to and in connection with agricultural pursuits or developments, whether the employer be the farmer or other person undertaking or contracting with the farmer to perform any such agricultural service, pursuit, or development. This Act shall not apply to farm laborers, domestic servants, nor to country blacksmiths, wheelwrights or similar rural employments, unless these employments elect to come under this Act as provided in Section 33, nor in any case where the accident occurred before this Act takes effect, nor to casual employees, or any employee whose salary is in excess of two thousand dollars a year or any employees who are employed wholly without the State. But for all purposes of this Article casual, occasional, or incidental employment outside of this State by the Maryland employer of an employee or employees regularly employed by said employer within this State shall be construed to be employment within this State; provided, however, if an employee or the dependents of an employee shall receive compensation or damages under the laws of any other State, nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to permit a total compensation for the same injury greater than is provided for in this Act.
