

Section 40. That it shall be unlawful for any person to kill more than Twelve (12) Partridges (quail) in any one day, or more than Two (2) Ruffed Grouse in any one day, or more than Three (3) English Pheasant in any one day, or more than Fifty (50) Rail in any one day, or more than Fifty (50) Reed birds in any one day, or more than Twenty-five (25) Doves in any one day, or more than Six (6) Woodcock in any one day, or more than ten (10) rabbits in any one day, or more than twenty-five (25) squirrels in any one day, or more than Twenty-five (25) Jacksnipe in any one day, or more than Twenty-five (25) Wild Water-fowl (ducks, geese, swan and brant) in any one day for each man on or connected with the outfit not exceeding four men in number, each of whom shall have a gunner's license, or more than Fifteen (15) Yellow-legs in any one day, or more than Five (5) Black Breasted Plover in any one day, or more than Twenty-five (25) Coots (crow-bills) and Gallinules in all in any one day, or more than Four (4) Wild Turkeys in any one season, or more than one Deer per season. It shall be unlawful to kill the female deer at any time during the time when it shall be lawful to shoot or kill such birds and animals as herein defined.

Any person found guilty of violating any part of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any Justice of the Peace of this State, shall be fined Ten Dollars ($10) for each and every Game Bird or Game Animal killed in excess of the bag limit as herein provided, and each Game Bird or Game Animal so found in possession in excess of the bag limit shall constitute a separate offense, and shall stand committed to the County jail or the Baltimore City jail until such fine and costs shall have been paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed sixty days for each offense.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws or parts of laws, both Local and General, inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, whether passed at this session of the Legislature or at former sessions, are hereby repealed. This Act shall take effect from June 1, 1922.

Approved April 13th, 1922.

---

CHAPTER 531.

AN ACT to authorize the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to pay a pension to Richard Martin.

(Vetoed.)