

74. The legal voters of Deer Park who have resided within the corporate limits thereof for six months next preceding the election, and all citizens of the United States who own any interest in real estate, or in houses in said town, of the age of twenty-one years and over, shall elect by ballot on the first Monday in May, in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two, from among the legal voters of said town, who have resided within its corporate limits for twelve months next preceding the date of such election, and who are taxpayers on either real or personal property therein, and who have been duly nominated for said offices at a public meeting or meetings held in said town by the citizens thereof not less than ten days before the date of said election, a Mayor and four common councilmen; the said Mayor and two of said common councilmen to serve for two years from the date of their election, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified, and the other two of said common councilmen to serve for four years from the date of their election, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified; and on the first Monday in May in every second year thereafter a mayor and two common councilmen shall be elected from among the legal voters and in the manner aforesaid and qualified as aforesaid, to serve for two years from the date of their election, and until their successors are duly elected and qualified; and the services of said Mayor and common councilmen shall be gratuitous and without pay.

85. They may annually levy a tax for the expenses of the corporation upon the taxable property within the town limits, real and personal, except public and private securities and book accounts, and such property as may be occupied by churches and public schools, and the same shall be collected by a collector appointed by the said Mayor and common council for the purpose, whose compensation for collecting said taxes shall not exceed five percentum thereof, and who shall give bond in such amount that they shall prescribe, and hold his office during thier pleasure, and the collector in collecting the taxes shall have the same power of distraint for the same that the collectors of State and county taxes have. But the tax shall not exceed fifty cents on the one hundred dollars in any one year. It shall be the duty of the Mayor and common council annually during the first week of July to post in at least three public places an itemized statement showing the receipts from all sources of said village of Deer Park for the year ending July 1st and an itemized statement of the ex-