

jail or other place of confinement beyond the limits of Prince George's County, under sentence or order of any legal authority, the County Commissioners shall pay to the Sheriff the actual cost of transportation of himself and of such person or persons so carried or conveyed as above mentioned. Before payment of such expenses, however, the said Sheriff shall present under oath an itemized account of such actual expenditures.

532. The salary of the Sheriff of Prince George's County shall be two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400.00) per year, payable in twelve equal monthly installments of two hundred dollars ($200.00) each on the first day of each month, and a further sum of two thousand four hundred dollars ($2,400.00) annually for a deputy or deputies or clerical assistant to be appointed by him, and which shall be paid in equal monthly installments to such deputy or deputies or clerical assistant upon vouchers to be approved by the said Sheriff who shall fix the compensation of such deputy or deputies or clerical assistant. The County Commissioners shall levy annually a sum sufficient for the payment of the salaries of said Sheriff and of his deputy or deputies or clerical assistant, and to pay for the actual traveling expenses to which he is entitled under Section 531 of this sub-title. The said Sheriff shall receive no other compensation, as expenses, salary or otherwise, from the County Commissioners, except as provided in this sub-title.

532A. The Sheriff of Prince George's County shall collect all fines, fees, costs and charges in criminal and civil cases to which he may be entitled by law, and shall exercise all the powers conferred upon him by law to enforce the collection of the same, and shall on the first of each month make a written report of the same under oath to the County Commissioners of Prince George's County in such form as the said County Commissioners may direct, and shall pay over to the said County Commissioners at the time of making such reports all such fees, costs or charges, together with all fines or other county moneys collected by him; and whenever any Sheriff shall retire from office leaving uncollected any costs, fines, fees or charges in any cases lawfully payable to him, it shall be the duty of his successor in office to collect the same and account and pay over the same in the same manner as if such costs, fines, fees or charges had been collected by his predecessors in office.