

CHAPTER 115.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Sections 192, 465, 466, 469 and 477 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Harford County," sub-titles "County Commissioners" and "Taxes and County Treasurer," as the same was enacted by the Acts of 1916, Chapter 680.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 192, 465, 466, 469 and 477 of Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland title "Harford County," sub-titles "County Commissioners" and "Taxes and County Treasurer," as the same was enacted by Chapter 680 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland at the session of 1916, be, and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, said amended Sections to read as follows:

SEC. 192. And the said County Commissioners shall meet at their office in Belair for the transaction of the business of their office at least one day in each week, but not more than two days in each week, except from the first Monday in September until the annual levy is made in each year they shall meet as often as the public business requires.

SEC. 465. The County Commissioners shall close the annual levy for the year 1923 and complete the same on or before the first day of November 1922 and on or before the same date in each succeeding year shall close and complete the annual levy, and the fiscal year for Harford County shall hereafter begin on the first day of January in each year.

SEC. 466. The County Commissioners shall within sixty days after making the annual levy certify to the treasurer the names of the taxpayers of the county arranged according to election districts and the amount of property with which each is assessed, setting forth plainly the various forms of property upon which by law different rates are to be charged, the percentage for both State and county taxes for the year, and the aggregate of the State and county taxes levied in each election district, and shall also certify to the treasurer all the items of the levy made by them, showing in detail the several amounts levied and the specific purpose for which each is levied, and the treasurer shall thereupon open up on his books proper accounts, crediting each item so levied under its proper head, and as payments are made, charging the amounts so
