

all conveyances made thereafter shall be by such square numbers and all tax and other county and official references shall be by such square numbers and all sub-divisions of land thereafter within such municipality shall take such consecutive square or block numbers as may be given by said Commission. The expense of such map shall be borne by the municipality requesting the same.

SEC. 7. For the purpose of enabling said Commission to make its survey, plans and plats and to establish the permanent system of streets and highways, herein provided for, the said Commission, may, in addition to the tax rate it is authorized to certify to the respective County Commissioners for the purpose of providing for the interest and sinking fund of its general water and sewer bonds, certify to the respective County Commissioners an additional tax rate, not exceeding two cents on the one hundred dollars, which shall be levied, collected and paid over as said taxes are now provided for the said bonds. All sums received by said Commission from the additional tax rate shall be preserved in a separate fund and used only for the purposes set forth in this Act. The Commission shall require payment from each person or persons submitting a plat for approval an amount approximately equal to the cost of labor involved in determining whether said plat shall be approved or not, which sum shall be paid before said plat is approved and carried into the fund provided for in the above section, not within the Sanitary District.

SEC. 8. Nothing in this Act shall be taken to abrogate, alter or impair any provision of any existing contract between the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission and the incorporated towns within said district, or to repeal Section 2 of Chapter 692 of the Acts of 1920 or any re-enactment thereof.

SEC. 9. Any person interested in any sub-division of land in said district who may feel aggrieved by any ruling or requirement of the said Commission under this Act may appeal to the County Commissioners of the county within which the land lies, who shall upon petition setting forth such grievance, set a date, notify all parties concerned, and after a hearing, make such an order as they may deem reasonable and proper.

SEC. 10. That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote
