

not less than one hundred dollars, or be confined in the penitentiary of the State for not less than one year, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court, and shall be forever thereafter disqualified from holding any office of profit or trust created under this section and from voting at any election to be held in said City.

SEC. 76. Immediately after the levy is made by the Council, in each year, the Collector shall give notice of the making of the levy in one or more newspapers published in said City. He shall make out and deliver in person, or mail to each taxpayer at his last known post office address, a bill or account of the taxes due by him, giving the amount of real or personal property with which he is assessed, the rate of taxation and amount of taxes due, and the date from which the taxes will bear interest. He shall keep a copy of the notice and shall make a memorandum thereon of the date of delivering or mailing of said notice, as the case may be, which memorandum shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery or mailing of same.

SEC. 80. The said Clerk shall submit an itemized statement at the first regular meeting in each month, or as often as he may be requested, to the Council of all expenses incurred by the city and of all money received and expended during the preceding month, and a like statement to the Mayor at any time he may ask therefor. And at the end of each fiscal year, during the month of July, the Clerk shall prepare and submit to the Mayor and Council a statement in detail of all resources and receipts and all expenditures and disbursements showing to whom and for what purpose the City funds were expended during the preceding fiscal year, which said statement, after being approved by the Mayor and Council, shall be published by them not later than the month of August, in at least one newspaper published in said City.

SEC. 85. The Council shall on or before the first day of October annually levy upon the assessable property subject to taxation for City purposes a sum sufficient for all general purposes, not to exceed in any one year ninety cents on each one hundred dollars of assessable property, and shall also levy and collect the amount required to meet the interest on all bonds heretofore legally issued or to be hereafter legally issued, and to provide at least two thousand dollars per annum for a Sinking Fund to be applied to the redemption of outstanding bonds, which said taxes or assessments when assessed and levied
