treasurer of said county, and shall be deposited by the said treasurer in some bank, savings institution or trust company, that will guarantee to pay interest at the best rate on daily balances, and the so deposited fund shall be drawn only on checks signed by the president of said Board of County Commissioners and the said county treasurer.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the said County treasurer shall keep in a book, to be provided for that purpose, a full registry of the bonds sold, the different series, serial numbers of the bonds and names of the purchasers, the amount realized therefor and all transfers and assignments thereof.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That, for the purpose of redeeming said bonds at their maturity and for securing the prompt payment of the interest coupons, the said Board of County Commissioners shall annually until the maturity of the last of said bonds, issued under the authority of this Act, levy a tax upon the assessable property of said county sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds sold and unredeemed; and for the year 1926 and annually thereafter, the said Board of County Commissioners shall levy a tax upon the assessable property of said county sufficient annually to pay and redeem the series of bonds payable in each of said years.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That no portion of the taxes levied under the authority of this Act shall be diverted or used for any other purpose than the payment of said interest coupons and the liquidation and payment of said bonds.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That, in order to provide for the selling of said bonds, to be issued under the provisions of this Act, the said County Commissioners of Carroll County or a majority of them are hereby directed to advertise for at least once a week for four successive weeks before each series of said bonds or any part thereof shall be sold, in such newspapers printed and published in Carroll County or elsewhere as may be determined by said County Commissioners or a majority of them, that the said County Commissioners will be in readiness at any time within fifteen days after the expiration of said notice to receive bids at such place or places as may be named in said respective advertisements for bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, under such regulations as may be made in the discretion of said County Commissioners or a majority of them; and the accrued interest between the date of the bonds and the time of the sale and delivery of any
