

Section 279. Each election district of Prince George's County is hereby made a road district. In each of the said road districts hereby created, there shall be a road supervisor, who shall have supervision over the actual working of the roads, and the use of implements and materials and the repairing of bridges in his road district, except as hereinafter provided. He shall employ and discharge laborers, hire teams and purchase materials, machinery and equipment, with the consent of his district road committee as hereinafter provided; and he shall have power to sell machinery and equipment with the consent of his district road committee as hereinafter provided; and he shall be responsible for all machinery and equipment in his possession. Said supervisor shall be appointed immediately after the passage of this Act, and shall serve until the first Monday in April, 1923, at which time the County Commissioners shall annually appoint the supervisor in each of said road districts, and said district supervisor shall be appointed upon the written recommendation of the district road committee in his road district as hereinafter provided; and shall receive such compensation per day as may be fixed by said district road committee and shall be subject to removal at any time by said Board of County Commissioners on written charges preferred by said committee or a majority thereof and after a hearing. That the per diem charge for all labor and team hire shall be fixed by the district road committee, and said supervisor shall not employ any labor or hire any teams or other utensils or equipment at a price in excess of the schedule of prices so fixed by his district road committee. Should there be established an additional election district prior to or subsequent to the passage of this Act and prior to April 1, 1924, then said new district shall be included with Chillum District, Hyattsville District, Kent District and Seat Pleasant District, and George A Gude, the present County Commissioner or his successor, in case of a vacancy for any cause, shall name the five district committee-men in said new election district which is hereby declared to be a road district.

For the purpose of this Act, and for the purpose of immediate appointment of the district road committee in each of the nineteen road districts herein created, the several election districts are combined as follows:

Nottingham District, Aquasco District, Brandywine District, and Piscataway District, are hereby classified as one district; and William H. Duvall, the present County Commis-
