

Section 3. Be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners shall meet at the alms house at least once a month for the purpose of transacting such necessary business in relation to same as may come to their attention, view and inspection.

Section 4. Be it enacted, That the County Commissioners shall have the power and authority to pass such needful regulations as they may deem wise and beneficial for the government of said institution and its inmates.

Section 5. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners shall have the power and authority to appoint an overseer and matron of said alms house and such other officers and servants as to them shall appear necessary and they shall appoint such overseer, matron, officers or servants at such salary as said Commissioners shall deem adequate.

Section 6. Be it enacted, That every overseer shall enter into a bond, with good and sufficient securities, in the penalty of five hundred dollars, payable to the State of Maryland, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

Section 7. Be it enacted, That the Commissioners may remove such overseer and all other officers appointed by them with or without cause or notice.

Section 8. Be it enacted, That whenever a vacancy shall exist in the office of overseer of the poor, either by the expiration of the time for which he was appointed or by removal, the overseer whose office shall so become vacant shall, upon the order of said Commissioners deliver up to the Commissioners the possession and custody of the alms house and all property and effect of every description thereto belonging; and upon his neglect or refusal to do so, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the county, upon the request of said Commissioners to remove him therefrom.

Section 9. Be it enacted, That the clerk of the trustees of the poor, shall on the first Monday in July in the year 1922 deliver up to the clerk to the County Commissioners all books, papers, moneys or other property in his custody as said clerk, and the said clerk to the County Commissioners shall have charge of all records, accounts, books, papers and other property in relation to any and all matters appertaining to said institution.