

The Director first appointed shall hold office until the first Monday of May, 1924, and until his successor shall have been appointed and qualify, and thereafter the term of the Director shall be four years. The associate members first appointed shall be so classed by the Governor that the terms of office of two shall expire on the first Monday of May, 1924, the terms of office of two on the first Monday of May, 1926, and the terms of office of two on the first Monday of May, 1928, and thereafter in each case the Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint two associate members in the place of the two whose terms shall so expire, and thereafter the terms of the associate members shall be six years, respectively. Vacancies in said Board shall be filled by the Governor for the unexpired term, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Governor may remove any member of said Board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or misconduct in office, giving to such member a copy of the charges preferred, and the opportunity of being first publicly heard in person or by counsel. If such member shall be removed, the Governor shall file in the office of the Secretary of State a complete statement of all charges made against such member, and his findings thereon, together with a complete record of the proceedings. The salary of the Director and Chairman shall be $4,000 per annum, and the associate members shall serve without pay.

SECTION 2. On the taking effect of this Act, all the rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions of the State Board of Prison Control, as the same are set forth in Article 27 of the Annotated Code, title "Crimes and Punishment," or in any other provisions of law, shall be transferred to and thereafter be exercised and performed by the said Board of Welfare, as the lawful successor to said State Board of Prison Control, to the same extent and effect as if the said Board of Welfare had been named in said provisions of law as the body upon which the said rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions were conferred. Thereupon the terms of office of the members of the said State Board of Prison Control shall cease and be at an end, and the said Board shall be and stand abolished.

SECTION 3. The Springfield State Hospital, the Spring Grove State Hospital, the Eastern Shore State Hospital, the Crownsville State Hospital and the Rosewood State Training School, are each, on the taking effect of this Act, placed in and
