

any holder thereof. The principal and interest thereof shall be payable at some bank or trust company to be determined by said Board of Education and the place of payment shall be stated on the bonds and coupons.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Board of Education of Prince George's County shall advertise for sealed bids for said bonds by inserting a notice in at least two daily newspapers published in the City of Baltimore to be selected by them at least once a week for two (2) successive weeks before the opening of said bids, and the said bonds shall be sold to the highest responsible bidder therefor for cash, and the terms of bidding and the amount of deposit required to be made shall be in the discretion of the Board of Education who shall have the right to reject any and all bids.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Board of Education of Prince George's County shall use the money received from the sale of bonds issued hereunder immediately upon its receipt for the specific purpose for which said bonds have been issued, and for no other purpose whatever, provided, however, that in case it shall not be necessary to use the full amount authorized herein for the acquisition of the site and the construction and equipment of the specific school for which such money is appropriated, that then and in such case the balance in the hands of the Board of Education of Prince George's County from such specific appropriation may, with the approval of the County Commissioners, be applied to the purchase of sites, the erection of new buildings, the addition to or the alteration of existing school buildings, and the equipment of such new additions or alterations at other places in said county, where, in the discretion of the Board of Education the same may be needed. The Board of Education of Prince George's County is hereby given full power and authority to do all manner of things in connection with the purchase, construction and equipment authorized herein as may be necessary.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Prince George's County are hereby authorized and directed to levy, each and every year after any bond issue under the provisions hereof, as a separate fund for each of such issues, a sufficient amount of money to meet the interest on said bonds, and to create a sinking fund to pay said bonds at maturity, until the last of said bonds issued under this Act shall have been paid and cancelled. Such funds shall be deposited
