pursuit or development. This Act shall not apply to farm laborers, domestic servants, nor to country blacksmiths, wheelwrights or similar rural employments, unless these employments elect to come under this Act as provided in Section 33, nor in any case where the accident occurred before this Act takes effect, nor to casual employes, or any employes who are employed wholly without the State.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 13, 1922.

CHAPTER 304.

An Act to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 8 of Chapter 88 of the Acts of 1920, entitled "An Act to provide certain regulations for the shooting of wild fowl in, on or over the waters of Talbot County," relating to the location of blinds and prohibiting the placing or setting of fish nets nearer than fifteen hundred yards of any licensed blind.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 8 of Chapter 88 of the Acts of 1920, entitled "An Act to provide certain regulations for the shooting of wild fowl in, on or over the waters of Talbot County," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

8. All owners of riparian rights on the said waters of Talbot County shall, by virtue of said ownership, be first entitled to make a choice of the "set" or position in front of the property in which they are owners of the riparian rights for the purpose of erecting and maintaining any booby blind, stake blind, floating blind, sink box or artificial point of any description, provided that said riparian owners shall avail themselves of said choice of locality and clearly mark the same within not less than twenty days prior to the open season fixed by law for shooting wild fowl on the waters of Tal-
