

CHAPTER 347.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 115 of Article 21 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Talbot County," sub-title "Terrapin and Crabs," as said section was amended by Chapter 667 of the Acts of 1910, to permit the use of haul seines for fishing in certain waters of Talbot County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 115 of Article 21 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Talbot County," sub-title "Terrapin and Crabs," as said section was amended by Chapter 667 of the Acts of 1910, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

115. It shall be lawful to catch fish in the waters of the Miles River and all of its tributaries, and in all the tributaries of the Wye and Great Choptank Rivers lying solely in Talbot County, with gill nets or hook and line at any time, and it shall be lawful to catch fish in Skipton Creek and in the Choptank River north of a line drawn from Cook's Point in Dorchester County to Chain's Point in Talbot County, including Harrison's Creek, with haul seines from the first day of August to twentieth day of May following, and it shall be unlawful to set any net so that it will extend more than one-half the distance across the river or creek in which it may be set; and it shall be lawful to catch fish in all other waters of said county with hook and line at any time, and to take and catch fish with gill nets, haul seine, drag nets, fish baskets, fish pots, pound nets and fykes from the first day of August to the twentieth day of May following; provided, however, that the meshes in all seines, nets, pounds and fykes are in the bar not less than one and one-half inches.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1922.

Approved April 13th, 1922.

CHAPTER 348.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 302 of Article 93 of Bagby's Annotated Code of the Public Civil Laws of Maryland, title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Widows."
