

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That Chapter 488 of the Acts of 1920, relating to the licensing of duck blinds, be and it is hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall apply to Charles County, St. Mary's County, Anne Arundel County, Prince George's County, and all that part of Calvert County north of Hunting Creek.

Approved April 13th, 1922.

---

CHAPTER 360.

AN ACT to create a Special Taxing Area or District, and to be known as the village of Woodmont, in Montgomery County, Maryland, and to authorize, empower and direct the County Commissioners of Montgomery County, Maryland, to make a special annual levy not exceeding fifty cents on each one hundred dollars of the assessable property in said village of Woodmont within certain boundaries for the purpose of opening, improving, repairing and lighting the streets, roads, lanes, alleys, sidewalks, parking, drainage, sewage, sanitation and other village improvements, and for furnishing police protection, clerical and other public services, including the removal of ashes, garbage and other refuse and the disposal thereof; and for the employment of a building inspector to enforce the requirements of all conveyances of land situate in said village and the promulgation of building and other regulations; also directing the Board of County Commissioners to appoint such executive or committee as said Board may deem wise or expedient for the expenditure of the funds so levied and collected for the purposes herein enumerated and to credit to the Special Taxing Area Fund of said village the money collected on account of the County Road Tax in the same amount and manner as is now required by law to be paid to incorporated towns in said county, to assess the cost of certain improvements against the property abutting on streets, roads, lanes and sidewalks for certain improvements, the collection of such assessment and disbursements thereof for the benefit of the residents of said village, and to do any and all other things that may be required for the purposes of the levying and collection of special taxes within the prescribed area