

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the question whether or not said Cecil County School Bonds shall be issued by the County Commissioners of Cecil County, as above provided, shall be submitted to the registered and qualified voters of Cecil County aforesaid at the regular election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1922, and the Supervisors of Elections of Cecil County are hereby directed to have printed on the ballots used at said election in the manner prescribed by law generally in the case of questions submitted to the registered voters, the question "Shall bonds not to exceed the sum of $150,000 be issued by the County Commissioners of Cecil County for the improvement of the public educational system of said county, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter _____ of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session 1922, and the recommendation of the committee appointed therein," and immediately thereafter shall be printed on each ballot the words "For School Bond Issue" and "Against School Bond Issue," as now provided by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made by the Board of Canvassers to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Cecil County of the vote for and against said proposed bond issue. If the majority of the votes cast at said election shall be "For School Bond Issue," then the County Commissioners shall issue bonds as provided for in this Act, but if the majority of votes be cast "Against School Bond Issue," then said bonds shall not be issued unless later approved by said voters as provided by the next succeeding paragraph.

Should the majority of votes cast at the election in 1922, above referred to, be "Against School Bond Issue," then in that case the Board of Supervisors of Elections for Cecil County shall again submit the question to the qualified voters of said county at the election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1923, in the same manner as is above provided for its submission at the general election in 1922, and should the majority of the votes cast at said election in 1923 be cast "For School Bond issue," then the County Commissioners of said county shall issue the bonds as provided for in this Act, except, however, that said bonds shall be dated January 1, 1924, instead of January 1, 1923, as provided in Section 2 hereof.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1922.

Approved April 13th, 1922.
