

ston District desire to create said special taxing district, there shall be held an election on the second Tuesday in April, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and Newton A. James, Ernest M. Dew, John Ridley Shields, D. Hazen McLeod and John Hiser are hereby appointed a committee for the purpose of holding said election and declaring the result thereof. Not less than seven days before said election they shall post in five public places within the proposed taxing district limits, a notice notifying the residents of said proposed district who are qualified under this Act, that there will be held on said day at a certain place and between certain hours, an election to determine whether or not said residents desire to create said special taxing district. The said committee shall provide ballot boxes, booths and ballots which shall contain the words "For the creation of the Edmonston Taxing District" on one line, and "Against the creation of the Edmonston Taxing District" on another line, with a square opposite each. Said election shall be conducted as nearly as practicable as an election for county officers in said county. Said committee shall appoint three judges and two clerks, or they may themselves serve as judges and appoint two clerks who shall conduct said election, and upon the closing of said polls shall canvass the said vote and publicly announce the result of said canvass. In the event of a majority of said voters being in favor of the creation of said Edmonston Taxing District, this special taxing district shall become immediately in existence and in operation, and thereupon the same committee shall, on the first Monday in May, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, hold an election as hereinbefore provided for the election of the said Edmonston District Citizens Committee.

For the purpose of election to determine whether or not the proposed Edmonston District hereinbefore mentioned shall be considered the special taxing district for the residents of said proposed Edmonston District, all residents of said proposed Edmonston District, of the age of twenty-one years or upwards, who shall possess the qualifications of legally registered voters of this State, and who shall have resided in said proposed district for the space of six months next preceding the first Monday in May in each year in which they seek to vote shall be eligible to vote at such election, and the committee above named shall have power to name two of its members for the purpose of registration of said voters, who shall have for this purpose all the powers of registration officers for any election in Prince George's County.
