

superintendent; and the salary of no supervising teacher, helping teacher, or attendance officer, regularly employed at the time this section (as re-enacted in 1922) goes into effect, shall be diminished by reason of any of its provisions, but they shall be entitled to any increase in salary that may herein be granted from the time this section (as re-enacted in 1922) goes into effect.

74. The county board of education shall provide the office of the county superintendent of schools with ample, convenient, and comfortable quarters, and with adequate clerical equipment; and the county superintendent of schools and his professional assistants shall be provided with such means of transportation as are necessary for the effective and efficient performance of their official duties. They shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary traveling and other expenses and disbursements incurred or made by them in the performance of their official duties, and no part of the traveling or personal expenses of the county superintendent and his professional assistants incurred in the performance of their official duties shall be included in or counted as a part of their annual salary.

The board of county commissioners of each county shall not deny any part of the amount requested for any one school year by the county board of education to be raised by local taxation in order to carry out the provisions of this section.

126B. No white high school teacher regularly employed in the public high schools of the State of Maryland shall receive a salary of less than eleven hundred and fifty dollars ($1,150) per school year, provided that if such teacher holds a high school teacher's certificate of the first class, and has taught in an approved high school of the State of Maryland for a period of one year, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) per school year; provided, further, if such teacher holds a high school teacher's certificate of the first class, and has taught in an approved high school of the State of Maryland for a period of three years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than one thousand two hundred and fifty dollars ($1,250) per school year; provided, further, if such teacher holds a high school teacher's certificate of the first class, and has taught in an approved high school of the State of Maryland for a period of five years, such teacher shall receive a salary of not less than one thousand three hundred dollars ($1,300) per school year; and pro