

Provided, however, that if any balance remains after providing for the purchase of sites and the erection and equipment of the aforesaid buildings, the said County Board of Education may, in its discretion, expend the said balance for the repair and equipment of any existing school building or buildings or for the erection and equipment of any additional school building or buildings which may be deemed necessary.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Washington County be and they are hereby authorized to levy annually on the taxable property of said county a sum of money sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and to redeem said bonds as they mature and become payable and to levy twenty thousand ($20,000.00) dollars annually for 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925 and 1926, for the redemption of the one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars of bonds due July 1st, 1927, and said taxes shall be collected in like manner as other taxes in said county, and when collected shall be applied to the payment of the interest on said bonds and to the redemption of said bonds as they mature and become payable. The said Commissioners shall deposit in the bank paying the highest rate of interest the twenty thousand ($20,000.00) dollars levied and collected for the years 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925 and 1926, the said funds thus deposited to be in a separate account and to be known as the sinking funds for the retirement of the Washington County School bonds as hereinabove provided for, which become due July 1st, 1927. The accumulated interest on said sinking fund shall be used to pay the interest on the outstanding bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, so far as it may pay the same; or the Board of County Commissioners for Washington County may purchase in the open market and cancel, if more advantageous, any of said bonds which may fall due July 1, 1927.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the Board of Education of Washington County shall publish within ninety (90) days after the completion of any buildings provided for in this Act, in at least one newspaper in Hagerstown, a complete statement in detail, showing the cost of the site, the building and equipment thereof.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1922.

Approved April 13th, 1922.
