

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners of Millington shall create an annual sinking fund beginning with the year 1922 for the payment of interest and for the redemption of said bonds, and if said sinking fund cannot be made sufficient under the present authorized levy or any future authorized levy to pay the interest on said bonds and the one-twentieth part of said bonded debt as it matures, the said Commissioners of Millington are hereby authorized to levy and collect annually a tax upon the taxable property in the town of Millington for a sum sufficient to provide for the payment of any such deficiency of interest on said bonds as they mature, and for any deficiency on the one-twentieth part of the principal of said bonded debt as the said bonds mature.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said sum of ten thousand ($10,000) dollars or so much as may be necessary thereof for the purpose, shall, by the Commissioners of Millington be used and applied in the purchasing of fire equipment for said town of Millington, and if any part of the proceeds of the sale of said bonds be left over after the purchase of said fire equipment, the same shall be turned over to the Treasurer of said town to be credited to the sinking fund hereinbefore provided for.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of public safety, and being passed upon a "yea" and "nay" vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 13th, 1922.
