CHAPTER 405.

AN ACT to prohibit all persons not citizens or residents of Talbot County from taking oysters from certain waters of said county, and to establish a new boundary line between the dredging and tonging grounds in the Great Choptank River; and to repeal Chapter 326 of the Acts of 1910, relating to the taking of oysters in certain waters in said county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons not citizens of Talbot County to take oysters from the waters of Harris Creek or Harris River, and Broad Creek, or Broad River, or the Great Choptank River, north of a line beginning at a point on the shore of the farm on Tilghman's Island, in said county owned by Mrs. Blanche L. Butler, said beginning
