

and expended as provided by law; and the County Commissioners shall prescribe the form of bookkeeping for the Sheriff's office and shall annually cause an audit to be made of his accounts.

Section 533A. The Sheriff of Montgomery County shall collect all fines, costs, charges or other monies which under the law as it existed prior to the passage of this act it was his duty to collect, and exercise all powers conferred upon him by law to enforce the collection of the same, and shall at the first meeting of the County Commissioners held in the months of March, June, September and December make a report of the same under oath in such forms as said County Commissioners may direct and pay over the fund upon order of said County Commissioners, and whenever any Sheriff shall retire from office leaving uncollected any monies in criminal cases lawfully payable to him, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of his successor to collect and pay over the same; and it shall be the duty of the Sheriff to keep in his office in a proper book for the purpose an official record of the monies to be collected by him and those which have so been collected, which book shall remain in his office after the expiration of his term for the use of his successor.

Section 533B. That the Sheriff of Montgomery County is hereby authorized and required to appoint at least seven deputy sheriffs for said county, who shall be mounted as said Sheriff shall direct, and shall be paid by said Sheriff such salary or salaries as said Sheriff, with the approval of said County Commissioners shall fix and determine out of the sum of $3,500 herein levied for the use of said Sheriff for said purpose. That said deputies shall hold office at the pleasure of the Sheriff and shall be removed by said Sheriff at any time said Sheriff may elect or by the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, upon indictment and conviction as now provided by law. That it shall be the duty of the Sheriff of the county to require said deputies to daily patrol the said district in which said deputy has been appointed and designated and to render every service as is usually required of constables and patrolmen now employed by the County Commissioners of said county, and also to do and perform at any time in any place in said county any service incident to the office of a deputy of the Sheriff of said county which they may be by the Sheriff ordered to do and perform, and the deputies of the Sheriff of Montgomery
