

months apart, or not earlier than six months prior to or after any general election in said town, as now provided; and the said special election or elections authorized to be held under this Act are to be subject to all the provisions and regulations in all respects as now provided by law or by the ordinances of Vienna for holding elections in said town, or as may hereafter be provided.

20. The Commissioners of Vienna shall have full power to assess and collect an equal tax on all the property within the corporate limits, but such tax shall not exceed the rate of seventy-five cents on the one hundred dollars of property taxed, and the sums at which the said property is assessed for state and county purposes shall be the basis for levying the town taxes, but the said Commissioners may assess all new property, and all property in the said town which they shall find is not assessed for state and county purposes. The assessment so made by the said Commissioners shall be at the fair cash value of the property so assessed, and shall bear its proportional part of the town taxes; provided, that no part of any farm lands which are included within the corporate limits shall be taxed for corporate purposes, so long as said farm lands shall be used for agricultural purposes, without the consent of the owners thereof.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That at the election to be held in said town in May, 1922, this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection, and the Supervisors of Elections shall cause to be printed on the ballots for use at said election the following: and shall cause an appropriate square or space to be printed opposite the above words on each line, so that the voters may clearly express their choice; and if a majority of the votes cast at said election upon the said question shall be in favor of the adoption of this Act, then and immediately thereupon it shall be in full force and effect; but if a majority of said votes shall be against the adoption of this Act, then and in that event it shall stand null, void and of no effect.

“For the Act

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act is an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members
