

the removal of obstructions from the streets, lanes or sidewalks, for prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons, for prohibiting and regulating the discharge of firearms, firecrackers, torpedoes and other explosives, for preventing swine, cattle, horses and other animals from running at large on the streets, roadways and sidewalks of said town; said Common Council may make ordinances regulating all public amusements and exhibitions, for the suppression of vice and immorality and for the apprehension of vagrants; said Common Council may regulate or prohibit the use or maintaining of check or coin-controlled machines, commonly known as slot machines, and to pass ordinances prohibiting the maintenance of any form of gambling device; to provide for the issue of building permits, permits for repairs and alterations, other than painting, in excess of one hundred dollars in cost, a charge of not more than five dollars each to be made for said permits, and to provide for the inspection of such buildings or repairs, the cost of said inspection to be paid for out of receipts for said permits; to pass ordinances prohibiting the keeping of swine and regulating the keeping of cows, pigeons and fowls within the corporate limits; to provide for and maintain fire hose and other fire-fighting apparatus; to provide for the issue of licenses for the keeping of dogs. Said Common Council may pass all ordinances necessary to carry out and enforce the foregoing provisions and to give full force and effect to the powers and authority conferred on said corporation and may enforce said ordinances by reasonable fines and penalties, not exceeding twenty-five dollars in any one case. All prosecutions under this section or any ordinance made in pursuance thereof shall be before the Mayor, sitting as a judge, or any justice of the peace of Prince George's County resident of said town, who may, upon conviction, impose such fine as may be specified by any such ordinance, not to exceed twenty-five dollars, and in addition thereto may imprison the offender until the fine be paid, not exceeding fifteen days, such imprisonment to be in the town lock-up, if any be provided, or in the county jail, and the Sheriff of Prince George's County shall receive and confine any person so committed. Any person prosecuted under this Section shall have a right to appeal to the Circuit Court of Prince George's County, in the same manner as appeals are now allowed by law from convictions by Justices of the Peace. Any such fines imposed by said Mayor or a justice of the peace, less lawful fees, to be turned over to the treasurer of the town of Riverdale for the use of said town. Said Council shall also