

enacted with amendments by Chapter 123 of the Acts of 1920, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Section 324. That the justices of the peace in Baltimore County shall be entitled to charge for their services in criminal cases the following fees: For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents; and for issuing summons for witnesses, including all witnesses ordered by the same party or side at one time, twenty-five cents; provided that if more than five witnesses be ordered by the same party or side at one time, then the justice of the peace shall be entitled to receive twenty-five cents additional for each five witnesses, or less than five so summoned; for every oath or affidavit, ten cents; for each hearing or trial, one dollar; for every commitment, twenty-five cents; for every release, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizances, in each case reported to the Circuit Court, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizance in each case for hearing or trial before a justice of the peace, twenty-five cents; for taking recognizance of all witnesses in any one case, twenty-five cents each; provided that no recognizance for the appearance of any witnesses shall be taken unless the justice of the peace be satisfied that the same is absolutely necessary to secure the ends of justice and the attendance of such witnesses; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents; provided that no justice of the peace appointed to sit at the station house at St. Dennis, in the Thirteenth Election District, shall be entitled to receive from the County Commissioners more than forty dollars as fees for his services in criminal cases in any one month, and that no justice of the peace other than the justices selected to sit at the station house at Catonsville, the justices selected to sit at some place in the Fourteenth Election District where designated by the County Commissioners and the justice selected to sit at the station house at St. Dennis, and the justices selected to sit at Pikesville and at Towson and in the Twelfth Election District where designated by the County Commissioners and in the Fifteenth Election District where designated by the County Commissioners, shall be entitled to receive from said County Commissioners more than ten dollars as fees for his services in criminal cases in any one month. And that the justice of the peace so selected to sit at Towson shall receive from the County Commissioners the sum of seventy-five dollars per month and ten dollars for his office expenses, which sum of