

680 of the Acts of 1916, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

291. The form and arrangement of the official ballot shall be the same as is now, or may hereafter be provided by law for State and County Elections, except there shall be no party name or designation on said ballot. Said ballots shall be of uniform size and printed upon plain white opaque paper, in black ink, in clear, legible and uniform type. The Board of Supervisors shall at least four days prior to the day of election cause an accurate sample copy of the official ballot to be posted in four or more public places in said City, said sample copies to be printed on cardboard, and at least one of said sample copies shall be placed on the exterior of the building in which the election is to be held. And the said Board of Supervisors shall publish an accurate copy of the official ballot in two newspapers of said City if so many be published therein by at least one insertion in said paper or papers before the day of election. The said Board shall furnish for said City a number of ballots equal to twice the number of registered voters in said City, upon a petition of twenty percent of the registered and qualified voters of the City of Havre de Grace, the Mayor and City Council and the Board of Election Supervisors shall place upon the ballot to be voted or in the next election in said city, the following, with appropriate boxes: "For Party Elections" "Against Party Elections", and if a majority vote for party elections, then thereafter the Mayor and City Council by ordinance shall provide for party registrations, Primaries and General Elections by said voters in lieu of the existing provisions of said city charter.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, This Act is an emergency Act and is necessary for the immediate safety and preservation of the people, and three-fifths of the members of both houses of the Legislature having concurred therein shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 13th, 1922.
