

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the State Board of Education may prescribe rules and regulations for the administration of this Act not inconsistent therewith and that the educational opportunities provided for in Section 4 shall not be available after July 1, 1926.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That the services provided for in Section 4 shall be paid for by the State on the basis of the actual increased cost of operation in excess of the cost of the institution if such legislation had not been passed, and not at the ordinary rate of individual courses. The students coming under the provision of Section 14 shall be exempt from the payment of late registration fees upon their first entrance at an institution subsequent to the passage of this Act. The acceptance of the bonus provided for in Section 3 shall preclude any person from availing himself of the privileges of Section 4 unless he shall first return to the State Treasury the bonus received.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That Section 4 shall be construed liberally and the State Board of Education shall extend the privileges thereby conferred to all persons who in its opinion come within the spirit and purpose thereof. Any clerical assistance required by the State Board of Education to carry out the provisions of this Act may be secured on approval of the Military Service Recognition Board, created under the provisions of this Act, said clerical assistance to be paid for out of the monies to be raised for the carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 17. And be it further enacted, That no person shall be eligible for any benefit accruing under this Act who (1) shall have received a dishonorable discharge from the service of the United States, or (2) shall have, at any time during the period of the war with Germany, sought to avoid service because of conscientious objection thereto, or because of alienage, provided that this restriction is not to apply to those persons who on account of the religious belief of the Church in which they were reared were first placed in a deferred classification by the Draft Board, but who later waived all claims to such exemptions and honorably performed military duty in the service of the United States, or (3) who shall have been at any time guilty of any fraud or willful violation or evasion of the selective service act or of the rules and regulations of the War Department in force thereunder, or (4) who shall have, though inducted
