

Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," sub-title "Registration," the said new section to follow immediately after Section 29, to be known as Section 29A of said Article, and to read as follows:

29A. In lieu of the dates prescribed by Section 29 for the general registration of voters, and the revision of the registry books for the City of Baltimore, for the year 1930, the Boards of Registry in said City shall be in session for the general registration of voters in said year, on Tuesday, September 16th, Wednesday, September 17th, Thursday, October 9th and Thursday, October 16th, and shall meet again for revision only on Friday, October 17th, 1930. All sessions of the Boards of Registry for the registration of voters and for the revision of the registry books shall be held between the hours of 2 P. M. and 10 P. M. (Eastern Standard Time). No new names shall be entered upon the registry books on the day fixed for revision.

On each of the days of registration, before separating, the members of the said Boards of Registry, representing each of the two political parties shall make out and deliver to two of their number of opposite politics, a list of the names and registered addresses of all those who are on the registry books as qualified voters, who are suspected of not being qualified to vote, which said list shall be prepared in the manner prescribed by Section 24 of this Article. The said two officers of registration, to whom such list has been delivered, shall sign a notice and deliver the same in person, to the address, as given in the registry books, of each person who is upon the suspected list, requiring such person to appear before the Board of Registry on Friday, October 17th, 1930, and show cause, if any, why his or her name should not be removed from the registry books. All such notices shall give the time of the session of the Board of Registry on October 17th, and shall be delivered at the addresses shown upon the registry books not later than noon on October 17th, 1930. The mailing of the notice as provided by Section 24 of this Article shall not be required in the revision of the registry books in Baltimore City, for the year 1930; and all suspected list cannot be found at the place designated upon the registry books, the notice may be left there, if such place can be found. At the beginning of the session for revision, the officers of registration to whom the suspected list was delivered, shall make affidavit as to the delivery of the notices, and the said Board shall thereupon proceed to revise the registry books in accordance with the provisions of Sections 25 and 26 of this Article.
