

also Job Coxe of Kent County Carpenter and James Broward of Kent County planter and present in Court in their proper persons and acknowledged themselves indebted to the Right Hon. the Lord Prop. in the Sum of two thousand five hundred pounds of 16<sup>s</sup>. Each to be made and Charged on their bodies Goods and Chattles Lands and Tenements to the use of his said Lordship his heirs and Successors Conditionally that if the said Laurence shall not keep the County harmless and undamned from any charge that may any way be payable and chargeable for the County by means of the said he be gott on James Flanagan as a Post where with they acknowledge themselves content

This is ordered before in 1733

of His Lordship
William Collins

Theophilus Randall of Kent County planter complains that William Collins of said County Taylor assaulted him and prays that the Court will send for him to answer the same Thereupon the Court orders that the Sheriff of Kent County bring before the Court the said William Collins to answer the same. and the said William being bro. into Court appears and the Court orders that John Graham keep the said William in safe custody until he shall give security to answer the premises at any time the Court shall please.

Thereupon afterwards came the said William Collins and acknowledged himself indebted to the Right Hon. the Lord Prop. in the Sum of Twenty pounds to be made and Charged on his body goods and Chattles Lands and Tenements to the use of his Lordship his heirs and Successors Conditionally that if he do not make his personal appearance at the Court any time during the Court sitting to answer unto what shall be objected against him on his Lordships behalf for assaulting the said Theophilus Randall and in the mean time to be of good behaviour where with he acknowledges himself content.

also at the same Court came James Hare of Kent County planter and present in Court in his proper person and acknowledged himself indebted to the Right Hon. the Lord Prop. in the Sum of Twenty pounds to be made and Charged on his body Goods and Chattles Lands and Tenements to the use of his said Lordship his heirs and Successors and Conditionally that if the said William Collins shall not anytime during this Court sitting answer unto what shall be objected against him on his Lordships behalf on account of assaulting the said Theophilus Randall where with the said James Hare acknowledges himself to be content.

The Court orders that Theophilus Randall enter into Prosequer for his app. any time during this Court sitting to prosecute the said W. Collins for assaulting him as a Post

Theophilus Randall of Kent County planter present in Court in his proper person and acknowledged himself indebted to the Right Hon. the Lord Prop. in the