

County Farm and make such rules and regulations for the management and government of them and of the inmates of the said County Home as they may think proper.

41EE. The County Commissioners shall, on their first meeting day in the month of March next succeeding the going into effect of this Act and at the first meeting in each succeeding March, appoint some suitable person to be Superintendent of the County Home, and the County Farm connected therewith, for the year ensuing such appointment. The Superintendent so appointed shall enter upon the discharge of his duties the first day of April succeeding his appointment and shall hold office for one year from that date or until his successor is appointed and has qualified. The County Commissioners shall appoint such assistant or assistants to aid the Superintendent and for such period or periods as they deem necessary for the proper management and maintenance of the said County Home and County Farm.

41FF. The County Commissioners shall have power to remove from office the Superintendent or any assistant whenever in their judgment the interests of the County may require such removal. In case of a removal from office, the County Commissioners shall appoint a successor to fill out the unexpired term of the person removed.

41GG. The County Commissioners shall require the Superintendent, before entering upon the discharge of his duties, to give a bond with security approved by them, payable to the County Commissioners of Garrett County, in the penalty of one thousand ($1,000.) dollars, conditioned as follows, to wit: "The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bond, A B as Superintendent of the County Home and County Farm in Garrett County, shall well and truly perform and discharge his duties in said station, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law."

41HH. The said Superintendent shall receive such fair salary as to be agreed upon by the County Commissioners and the Superintendent for services to be rendered by him and his family per annum and so pro rata during his continuance in office. This salary is to be exclusive of board and lodging for himself and family. The assistant or assistants, if any are appointed, shall receive such compensation as the County Commissioners shall deem proper.
