SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Berwyn Citizens' Committee shall have power to levy on or before the 30th day of June, in each year, taxes at such rates as they may find necessary to meet anticipated expenses for the coming fiscal year, not, however, to exceed 5 cents on the $100 on the assessment for all general purposes, except as hereinafter provided. All taxes for special purposes authorized under this Act, or under any succeeding Acts shall be levied at the same time, and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person, partnership or corporation against whom they may be levied. The taxes so levied shall be due and payable on the first day of August next succeeding the levy thereof, and shall be in arrears and subject to interest from and after that date. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Berwyn Citizens' Committee within ten days after the levy has been made to notify each person against whom, or the known owner of each piece of property against which any tax has been levied by placing a tax bill showing the amount due in the United States mail with sufficient postage prepaid, addressed to such persons or owners at their last known postoffice addresses. In case such owner or owners are unknown, such bills shall be left, or set up upon the premises against which the taxes are levied. All taxes shall be payable to the Treasurer of the Berwyn Citizens' Committee, and his receipt therefor shall be the receipt of the Berwyn Citizens' Committee.

All taxes levied against real and personal property in said town which are not paid on or before the 31st day of December in the year of their levy, shall be in default, and it shall then be the duty of the Treasurer of the Berwyn Citizens' Committee to advertise all such real property for public sale on or before the third Monday in February of the year succeeding the year for which said taxes remain unpaid, by advertisement in a weekly newspaper published in said town, or if there be no paper published in said town, then in some paper published elsewhere in Prince George's County, at least three weeks before such sale, which advertisement shall state the day of sale, the name of the party in whom the property is assessed, if known,
