

ment, date of discharge or of death, as the case may be, cause of death if inmate died at the County Home, whether or not the inmate was previously committed there and, if so, how often and for how long each time. A copy of the list shall be furnished by the Superintendent to the County Commissioners semi-annually on the first day of January and June of each year and whenever they shall require.

41-00. The Superintendent shall compel all of the inmates of the County Home, if of sufficient ability, to work.

41PP. Upon complaint and due proof made by the Superintendent to a Justice of the Peace of the County that any person in the County Home has behaved in a disorderly manner or has refused or neglected to obey any of the rules or regulations of the County Home, the said Justice of the Peace may direct such moderate and proper correction to be given to such offenders as the nature of the case may require.

41QQ. Upon complaint made that any person from his disorderly conduct gives disturbance to a neighborhood and is likely to become chargeable to the County, any Justice of the Peace, if, upon hearing he shall adjudge the complaint to be well-founded, may commit such person to the County Home for any time not exceeding three months, unless he shall find security, in the discretion of the Justice of the Peace, in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) for his good behavior for the space of six months.

41RR. Any Justice of the Peace of the County or any person authorized by him may apprehend and commit to the County Home any rogues, vagrants, vagabonds, beggars and other idle, dissolute and disorderly persons found loitering or residing in the said County and having no visible means of subsistence and following no trade or occupation, there to be kept at hard labor for any period not exceeding three months and the Superintendent shall receive and employ them accordingly.

41SS. The County Commissioners, as a body, may appoint what poor, insane, feeble-minded, aged, crippled and others who are or are likely to become public charges, shall be received in the County Home; provided that any one Commissioner may, during the interval between meetings of the County Commissioners as a body, commit a poor, insane, feeble-minded, aged, crippled or other person who is or is likely to become a public charge, and he or she, as the case may be, shall be received into
