

of said Commission the fact of his making such appointment and the same day notifying the person so appointed of his said appointment. And the remaining qualified Commissioner making such appointment shall appoint as Commissioner such person who was a candidate at the last election and who received the second greatest number of votes in the ward wherein the vacancy exists. If the person so appointed fails to qualify, then the remaining qualified Commission shall appoint as such Commission such person who was a candidate at the last election and who received the third greatest number of votes in the ward wherein the vacancy exists, and so forth. And if there be no available candidates, from such ward wherein vacancy exists, who were candidates at the last election, then said remaining qualified Commissioners may appoint any person from such ward wherein such vacancy exists provided the person so appointed is eligible to the office of Commissioner under the provisions of this Act. Any additional vacancy that may exist shall be filled by the two qualified Commissioners by resolution, entered in the minute books of said Commission, appointing as Commissioner such person who was a candidate at the last election and who received the second greatest number of votes in the ward wherein the vacancy exists. If the person so appointed fails to qualify, the two qualified Commissioners shall, in like manner, appoint as such Commissioner such person who was a candidate at the last election and who received the third greatest number of votes in the ward wherein the vacancy exists, and so forth. And if there be no available candidates, from such wards wherein such vacancy exists, who were candidates at the last election, then said two qualified Commissioners may appoint any person from such ward wherein such vacancy exists provided the person so appointed is eligible to the office of Commissioner under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted: (A) That for the purpose of determining whether the residents of the Town of Cottage City desire to incorporate, there shall be held an election in said town between the hours of 5 o'clock P. M. and 8 o'clock P. M. on the first Monday in June in the year 1924.

(B) That J. B. MORRIS, C. A. LOCKE and P. P. GREENWOOD are hereby appointed to be and constitute a Board of Election Supervisors for the purpose of conducting such election and declaring the result thereof.

(C) That within ten days (including Sundays and holidays) after this Act is approved, the persons named in para-
