SEC. 4. And be it further enacted as aforesaid, That the said interest coupons and the said principal of said bonds shall be payable at the office of the County Treasurer of Worcester County; and whenever any such coupon or coupons, bond or bonds, shall have been paid or redeemed it or they shall be cancelled and destroyed by the County Treasurer in the presence of the President or some other member of the Board of County Commissioners and a note thereof made on the record of said Board signed by the County Treasurer and the President or other member of said Board present at such cancellation or destruction.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted as aforesaid, That when the said bonds shall be duly executed as herein prescribed the County Commissioners of Worcester County shall advertise the same in at least two newspapers published in said Worcester County and in at least one newspaper published in Baltimore City, and by such other advertisement, if any, as they may deem proper and advisable, inviting sealed proposals for the purchase of said bonds or any part thereof with the privilege to the said County Commissioners of Worcester County with the concurrence of the Commission hereinafter named to reject any and all bids; and no bid shall be accepted and none of said bonds shall be sold at less than par and accrued interest. The said County Commissioners shall advertise the said bonds for such length of time as in their discretion, with the approval of the Commission hereinafter named, is adequate notice to the public, and may offer with the approval of said Commission all said bonds for sale at the same time or at different intervals in such installments and amounts as the said County Commissioners and the said Commission hereinafter named may deem advantageous to the public in carrying on the work for which the same are to be issued; and the money arising from the
