

of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Cecil County," sub-title "Wild Fowl"), as said section was amended by Chapter 458 of the Acts of 1922, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

208. It shall be lawful for the bona fide residents of Kent and Cecil Counties and also the owner or owners of real estate of the value of five hundred dollars or more in Kent or Cecil Counties, who are not actual bona fide residents of either County, to shoot wild fowl from sink boxes and from stick, floating or booby blinds in the waters of the Sassafras River, in said Counties, from the first day of November until the 31st day of January, in each year, upon obtaining a license so to do, as provided in the succeeding section; provided, that no shooting from sink boxes, stick, floating or booby blinds shall be allowed on the Cecil side of said river unless with the consent of the owner or tenant of the shore or point, opposite which the same may be placed; and provided further that no shooting from stick, floating or booby blinds shall be allowed opposite any shore or point on the Kent side of said river unless with the consent of the owner or tenant of said shore or point; and provided further that no stick, floating or booby blinds shall be anchored, tied or erected in said river at a distance greater than one hundred yards from the shore.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1924.

Approved April 9, 1924.

CHAPTER 440.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 134 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Fraud—Boarding House, Hotel and Livery Stable Keepers," fixing the maximum fine which may be imposed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 134 of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Crimes and Punishments," sub-title "Fraud—Boarding House, Hotel and Livery Stable Keepers," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

134. Every person who shall at any hotel, inn, boarding house, hospital, sanitarium or livery stable receive or cause to
