

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 1380 of Article 12 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Garrett County," sub-title "Kitzmillersville," as enacted by Chapter 285 of the Acts of Assembly of 1906, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

1380. The said Council shall have power to pass all such ordinances not contrary to the Constitution or the laws of this State, as it may deem necessary for the good government of the town; for the protection and preservation of the town property, rights and privileges; for the preservation of the peace and good order, and securing persons from violence, danger and destruction; for the protection of the health, comfort and convenience of the citizens of Kitzmillersville and visitors thereto and sojourners there; for providing proper and suitable lights on the streets; for establishing, maintaining and regulating an adequate police force; to regulate the management and location of livery stables, barns, outhouses or privies and such other establishments of which the business, trade or location may become obnoxious or injurious to the public comfort or health; to prohibit the erection of such buildings, the continuance of such noxious occupations therein, whenever the public health requires it; to prevent or regulate the use of firearms therein, fireworks, bonfires or other things or practices tending to endanger persons or property; to regulate or prohibit the running at large of cattle, horses, swine, fowls, sheep, goats, hogs or other animals; to authorize the empounding, keeping, sale and redemption of such animals when found in violation of the ordinances in such cases provided; to prevent the deposit of any unwholesome substance, either on public or private property; to compel its removal; to designate a point, and to require slop, garbage, ashes and other waste or unwholesome material to be removed to designated points, or to require the occupants or residents on premises to place them conveniently for removal; to compel the occupants of any premises, buildings or outhouses situate in said town, when the same hath become filthy or unwholesome, to abate or clean the same; to authorize the same to be done by the proper officers and to assess the expenditures thereon against such property; to authorize the removal or confinement of such persons having infectious or pestilential diseases; to regulate the selling, weighing or measuring of hay, wood, coke, coal and all other articles sold by weight and measure and to pro-