

Laws of Maryland, title "Wicomico County," sub-title "Foxes," as said section was amended by Chapter 349 of the Acts of 1908, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

51. Any person who shall shoot a fox that is being pursued by a dog or dogs in charge of a person or persons hunting the same for sport in the limits of Wicomico County shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before a justice of the peace shall be fined not more than ten dollars for each fox so killed, and stand committed until the fine and costs are paid, said fine to be paid over to the Board of Education of said county for the use of the public schools of said county; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to any landowner shooting a fox upon his own property.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1924.

Approved April 9, 1924.

CHAPTER 479.

AN ACT authorizing and directing the Comptroller of the State of Maryland to refund to the owners of hiring cars under Class F of the Automobile Law propelled by gasoline and equipped with pneumatic tires the difference between thirty-two cents per horse power and one dollar and twenty cents per horsepower paid by them to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles for registration cards and tags for the year 1924, said money to be paid out of the funds received by the Comptroller from the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, and requiring the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles to furnish the Comptroller with full information as to the names and addresses of such owners as are entitled to said refund and the amount collected from them at one dollar and twenty cents per horse power, and the amount which should have been collected at thirty-two cents per horse power.

WHEREAS, Chapter 522 of the Acts of 1922, was enacted for the purpose of substituting as far as possible a gasoline tax for the year 1924 for the per horse power registration fee provided for under the then existing law for all gasoline propelled motor vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires, except those motor vehicles which haul freight or passengers over a prescribed route under a franchise granted by the Public Service
