

so assessed and expended, the amount may be collected from said owners by suit before a justice of the peace or the circuit court and the judgment of such court shall become a first lien upon such properties; provided, however, that payment thereof may be made in three equal annual installments, with interest on deferred payments. The Mayor and Council shall have full power to provide for such fines, penalties and punishment for the breach of its ordinances as it may think proper. The Justice of the Peace may impose such fines or penalties for the breach of such ordinances and in default of payment he may commit the offender to confinement for a period of not more than thirty days in the county jail.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Council shall have the same power as the State Board of Health, within the boundaries of the said town. They may adopt and provide an efficient system of drainage; they may adopt suitable measures for the removal of garbage and sewage, and fix the amount to be paid therefor.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That all roads, streets, avenues, or alleys, which are now or shall hereafter be shown, on any plat or addition to the platted part of said town, as public highways, and accepted by the Mayor and Council as such, are hereby made and declared to be public streets, avenues and alleys of said town, and shall be from time to time improved and repaired as the public interest may require and the resources of the town justify.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Prince George's County, Maryland, shall annually pay over to the Clerk of the said town of Colmar Manor, three-fourths of that proportion of the entire taxes levied for roads and bridges imposed upon the assessable property within the boundaries of the said town of Colmar Manor by the County Commissioners of Prince George's County, to be expended upon the streets, roads, avenues and alleys of the town as the Mayor and Council may see fit.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That the Mayor and Council is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to levy and cause to be collected annually taxes at the rate of 25 cents on each $100.00 of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property in said town based on the State and County assessments for all purposes, and any taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the person, company or cor-
