

testify against any person indicted for violation of this sub-title in connection with the act of gaming in question; provided, however, that no person so testifying shall be convicted or punished for violation of this sub-title on his own testimony.

SEC. 243-E. Whenever any person shall charge on oath or affirmation before any justice of the peace within Montgomery County, or any grand jury within Montgomery County shall present that any person or persons, house, company, association or body corporate has or have violated the provisions of this sub-title, and shall request said justice of the peace so to do, or in case of presentment by the grand jury, the said grand jury shall request the Court to direct the Clerk of the Court issuing the warrant, the said justice of the peace or Clerk of the Court, upon the direction of the Court as aforesaid, shall issue his warrant, in which the house, building or other place in which the violation is alleged to have occurred, shall be specifically described, directed to the Sheriff or any member of the Montgomery County Police Force, commanding him thoroughly to search the described house, building or other place and the appurtenances thereof, and if any such shall there be found, to take into his possession and safely keep to be produced as evidence when required and to be disposed of in accordance with the order of the Court, all gambling paraphernalia as defined in Section 243-C of this sub-title, and the said Sheriff or Constable shall forthwith report in writing all of the facts to the State's Attorney for Montgomery County.

SEC. 243-F. In any indictment under this sub-title for violation of the provisions hereof, it shall not be necessary to specify the particular act which any person or persons, house, company or association, or body corporate, committed in violation of this sub-title, but it shall be sufficient for the purpose of such indictment to allege that the said person or persons, house, company, association or body corporate engaged in gaming, or engaged in setting up, maintaining, keeping or conducting a gaming house, or possessed gambling paraphernalia, as the case may be, in violation of this sub-title. The Circuit Court of Montgomery County and the Police Justice of Montgomery County are hereby given concurrent jurisdiction to try violations of this sub-title.

SEC. 243-G. Any person or persons, house, company, association or body corporate, upon conviction for violation of any
