

CHAPTER 492.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Chapter 11 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1914, relating to the imposition of a special levy for the betterment of improvements in the Village of Elkridge, Howard County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Chapter 11 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1914 be and the same is hereby re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That for the purposes of this Act the metes and bounds of the Village of Elkridge shall be deemed and taken as follows: Beginning at the point where the Mill Race of the Old Hockley Mill passes under the Viaduct Bridge of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and thence following the course of said Mill Race down to the Patapsco River; thence following the Patapsco River downstream to Deep Run Stream; thence going up Deep Run Stream to the place where the fourth or last course of the land known as the Nadden property crosses Deep Run Stream; thence leaving Deep Run Stream and following the fourth and third lines of the Nadden property reversely to the western side of the right of way of the Washington Branch of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad; thence along the western side of said right of way to the division line between the land now or formerly owned by John H. Shaab and Thomas W. Hook; thence following said division in a westerly course to the intersection of the land now or formerly owned by John H. Shaab and Thomas W. Hook and the east side of the Baltimore and Washington Turnpike Road; thence in a southerly direction and bearing along the east side of said Baltimore and Washington Turnpike Road to the land of John A. Hartkis, directly opposite the Montgomery Road; thence northerly along the west side of said Montgomery Road to the intersection of said Montgomery Road and the Lawyers' Hill Road (now a State road); thence in an easterly direction and along the east side of said Lawyers' Hill Road to the place of beginning; and for the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act the persons and property residing and bearing on the lines of the description herein contained, as well as the persons and property residing and bearing within said lines, shall be subject to the tax or special levy herein provided for.