

tion, or necessary in order to properly register a qualified voter. All persons who continuously reside within the corporate limits of said town shall be required to register but once in every four years. Each member of the Board of Election Commissioners shall be entitled to receive not to exceed $5 for each day of service, and the Mayor and Common Council shall appropriate a sum sufficient to defray the necessary expenses of said Board. The second sitting of the said Board shall be on Saturday next preceding the day of election, and if such day falls on a holiday, then on the preceding day.

All male and female persons who are citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age or over, and who have actually resided within the area defined as the corporate limits of the said town for a period of not less than one year next preceding the date of election, shall be entitled to be registered. Any person who shall reach the age of twenty-one years on or before election day shall not be barred from registering.

(b) The said Board shall proceed to conduct an election by a ballot on the first Monday of July, if not a legal holiday, and if a legal holiday, then on the day following, for the election of officers provided for in Section 5 of the Act approved April 13, 1922, incorporating the town of Brentwood. The polls shall be opened between the hours of one o'clock P. M. and eight o'clock P. M., and shall permit only those persons to vote whose names appear upon the registration books of which the said Board shall have custody. The Board of Election Commissioners shall prepare ballots containing the names of those persons who have complied with the existing provisions of law making them eligible to become a candidate for the office for which they seek. The Mayor and Town Council shall receive all returns of election in writing which shall be submitted under oath of the Board of Election Commissioners. Any member of said Board may interrogate any voter as to his qualifications, and may require such voter to make answer under oath. The determination of the Board of Election Commissioners shall be final and conclusive in all matters relating to the town election, and any voter or candidate who feels that his rights have been prejudiced in any manner by the action of said Board may, within ten days after election, file an appeal to the Circuit Court for Prince George's County, and the same shall be determined by said Court.
