

the recall of said commissioner, and in the event the majority are in favor of said recall the office of said commissioner shall be declared by the said commissioners vacant, and the vacancy filled by a special election as provided for in this charter in the case of general elections.

SEC. 17. That for the purposes of determining whether the citizens of said Berwyn Heights desire to incorporate there shall be held an election on May 6, 1924, under the supervision of the committee hereinafter named, the manner and procedure of which shall be as follows:

The committee to conduct such election shall consist of W. H. Willard, J. C. Loveless and J. R. Brelsford as judges of election, and Fred Frost and J. G. Hunt as clerks; and if any of said committee are unable or decline to serve, the remaining members of said committee are empowered to select some resident voter of said town to fill his place.

The qualifications of voters on the referendum election shall be the same as those hereinbefore set forth in regard to general elections.

The said committee shall not less than five days before said referendum election post in five conspicuous places in said town a written or printed notice notifying all the residents of said town who are qualified to vote under this act that an election will be held on the date fixed in this Act at a certain place and between certain hours, which notice shall contain the said date, the hours that the polls will remain open and the location of the polling place or places, and a statement that the election is to be held for the purpose of deciding whether or not to adopt this charter and form an incorporated town.

The said committee shall provide and furnish the place or places where such election shall be held, the booths, ballot boxes and a sufficient number of printed ballots upon which on one line the words "For Incorporation" shall be printed, and on another line the words "Against Incorporation." with squares opposite each.

Said election shall be conducted as nearly as practicable as an election for county officers is conducted in all points not specially provided for in this Act, and on the closing of the polls the said committee shall canvass said votes and publicly announce the result of the said canvass. In the event that a majority of the votes cast are for incorporation, this Act shall immediately become effective, and in the event that a majority
