

and denominations and at such interest, not exceeding five per cent. per annum, as said County Commissioners may by resolution direct.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Montgomery County are hereby authorized and empowered to levy a special tax in addition to such other regular and special tax against the assessable property, both real and personal, of the village of Woodmont, such sum as may be necessary in each year hereafter to pay the interest on the bonds heretofore issued and such other bonds as the County Commissioners may hereafter issue for the purpose aforesaid.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it is the purpose and intent of this Act to validate the ten thousand dollar bond issue heretofore issued by the County Commissioners of Montgomery County so as to remove any possible defect by reason of any irregularities of the aforesaid ten thousand dollars in bonds for the improvement of the roads and streets within said village, and it being the further intent of this Act to authorize and empower the County Commissioners in their discretion and in their judgment, if the best interest of the Town of Woodmont should require, to issue bonds in an amount not to exceed fifteen thousand dollars, to be issued and sold, and the money realized therefrom to be used within said village for village improvements, and to collect a special tax each year thereafter to pay the interest and principal on said bonds as said County Commissioners may by resolution direct.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of June A. D. 1924.

Approved April 9, 1924.

CHAPTER 532.
